

RelaxedLeather for iPhone X

Burnished Leather Shell

Lived in luxury for your new iPhone.

RelaxedLeather is a beautifully hand burnished leather wallet shell for your iPhone X. Each genuine leather case is completely unique thanks to distressing along the edges and corners. Like your favorite pair of broken in leather shoes, the patina on this case will only improve with regular use. This shell has a classic look that creates the perfect juxtaposition of vintage style and modern functionality. An interior microfiber lining protects the back of your iPhone, helping to keep it in “like new” condition. RelaxedLeather is offered with or without external pockets and is available in five rich colors.

Key facts:

- Genuine leather shell protects iPhone with style
- Hand finished with custom burnishing makes each case unique
- Equipped with two convenient pockets to carry an ID and bank card
- Quilted microfiber interior protects iPhone exterior finish
